Proposed Co-Counsel for the Debtors and Debtors in Possession

Exhibit A

of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion and opportunity for a hearing on the Motion were appropriate and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before this Court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted on a final basis as set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are authorized to: (a) continue, modify, change, and discontinue the Compensation and Benefits in the ordinary course of business during these chapter 11 cases and without the need for further Court approval, subject to applicable law, and (b) pay and honor prepetition amounts outstanding under or related to the Compensation and Benefits, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $145,495,500 in the ordinary course of business for the following obligations on a final basis, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any prepetition Compensation and Benefits obligations, if any, that exceed the priority amounts set forth in sections 507(a)(4) or 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that the Debtors will provide five calendar days' written notice to the U.S. Trustee and, on a professionals-eyes-only basis, counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") and counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Senior Lenders of any material modifications to the Compensation and Benefits.

3. Nothing herein (a) alters or amends the terms and conditions of any of the Workers' Compensation Programs¹ or the rights of any insurers or third-party administrators thereunder, or relieves the Debtors of any of their obligations under the Workers' Compensation Programs or (b) creates a direct right of action against any insurers or third-party administrators where such right of action does not already exist under non-bankruptcy law.

4. The automatic stay of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, if and to the extent applicable, is modified to the extent necessary to permit: (a) claimants to proceed with their claims under the Workers' Compensation Programs and direct action claims against insurers in the appropriate judicial or administrative forum, (b) insurers and third-party administrators to handle, administer, defend, settle and/or pay workers' compensation claims and direct action claims against insurers, and (c) the Debtors to continue the Workers' Compensation Programs and pay all prepetition and postpetition amounts relating thereto in the ordinary course of business. This modification of the automatic stay pertains solely to claims under the Workers' Compensation Programs and direct-action claims.

5. The Debtors are authorized to forward any unpaid amounts on account of Payroll Deductions, Payroll Taxes, and Payroll Processing Fees to the appropriate third-party recipients or taxing authorities in the ordinary course of business.

6. The Debtors are authorized to pay in the ordinary course of business any costs and expenses incidental to payment of the Compensation and Benefits obligations and all administrative and processing costs in connection therewith.

7. On a quarterly and professional-eyes-only basis, the Debtors shall provide at least five calendar days' written notice of any payments under the quarterly Non-Insider Bonus Program to counsel to the Committee and counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Senior Lenders. Such notice shall include aggregate amounts² proposed to be paid during the upcoming quarter by country and the number of Employees included in the proposed payment. On a monthly and professional-eyes-only basis, the Debtors shall provide counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Senior Lenders and counsel to the Committee a report of retention bonuses under the Non-Insider Bonus

² Amounts will be provided in Oku Yen.

Programs that were approved in the prior month within fourteen business days of the prior month's end beginning upon entry of this Final Order. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors shall not pay bonuses to any insiders unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

8. The Debtors shall provide three business days' written notice, on a professional-eyes-only basis, to counsel to the Committee and counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Senior Lenders of any Non-Insider Severance Program payments for severance events affecting more than fifty Employees. On a monthly and professional-eyes-only basis, the Debtors shall provide counsel to the Ad Hoc Group of Senior Lenders and counsel to the Committee a report of Non-Insider Severance Program payments made in the prior month within fourteen business days of the prior month's end beginning upon entry of this Final Order.

9. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Debtors are authorized to pay awards in resolution of employment-related claims to Employees and former Employees where ordered by courts in non-U.S. jurisdictions (including where ordered by means of a foreign court, confirmation of any settlement agreement entered into in the context of any applicable lawsuit in that foreign jurisdiction).

10. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order.

11. Nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the payment of any amounts that violate or implicate section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that nothing herein shall prejudice the Debtors' ability to seek approval of relief pursuant to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code by separate motion at a later time.

12. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed to create an administrative priority claim on account of the Compensation and Benefits obligations.

13. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order, all authorizations herein and all payments and actions pursuant hereto shall be subject to the Interim Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing, and (B) Use Cash Collateral; (II) Granting Liens and Providing Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims; (III) Granting Adequate Protection to Certain Prepetition Secured Parties; (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay; (V) Scheduling a Final Hearing; and (VI) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 109] and any final order of the Court approving the debtor-in-possession financing in these chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "DIP Orders"), including compliance with any budget or cash flow forecast in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of the DIP Orders or the DIP Documents (as defined in the DIP Orders). To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of the DIP Orders or the DIP Documents and the terms of this Final Order or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of the DIP Orders or the DIP Documents, as applicable, shall control.

14. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Final Order, and no action taken pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with this Final Order), is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount, validity, or priority of, or basis for, any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in the Motion or this Final Order; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action, or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

15. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein.

16. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

17. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Final Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

18. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

19. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.
